

TANGUY LE GOUELLEC DE SCHWARZ

Tanguy Le Gouëllec de Schwarz is a dual-qualified lawyer (French and English law) who focuses on the resolution of insurance and reinsurance disputes, both in the UK and French courts, and also advises clients on insurance and reinsurance regulatory and commercial matters.

Mr. Le Gouëllec de Schwarz has acted for clients across a wide range of industries, from aviation to financial institutions to energy. His degree in aerospace engineering proved invaluable when acting for aviation insurers with respect to litigation involving plane crashes, property damage, and reinsurance claims. Mr. Le Gouëllec de Schwarz also represents clients concerning disputes related to product liability, financial institutions (FI), errors and omissions (E&O), and property/first-party insurance (including subrogation) at both the insurance and reinsurance levels. Further, he advises on coverage issues (both on English and French law) with respect to facultative and treaty reinsurance, product liability, E&O, FI, directors and officers (D&O), and property policies.

In the regulatory and commercial fields of insurance and reinsurance, Mr. Le Gouëllec de Schwarz regularly advises clients concerning portfolio transfers, as well as cross-border discrete regulatory issues.

Mr. Le Gouëllec de Schwarz has acted in the largest reinsurance litigation in France, and on numerous reinsurance arbitrations (both facultative and treaty). He also has experience in asbestos-related issues at both the insurance and reinsurance levels and is a member of the Insurance and Reinsurance Legacy Association.
