

GRACE DELOTT

Grace Delott focuses her practice in general litigation and is committed to providing clients with exemplary service and legal knowledge.

Prior to joining Foran Glennon, Grace held positions as a law clerk for Chicago-based law firms in which she gained significant experience drafting motions, pleadings and memorandums about a variety of legal topics including personal injury and toxic torts. She also served as a Judicial Extern for the Honorable Marian E. Perkins in the Circuit Court of Cook County, concentrating on chancery and mortgage foreclosure matters.

EDUCATION

Grace earned her B.A. in Environmental Studies and Spanish with a minor in Gender and Women's Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2017. After completing her undergraduate degree, she received her J.D. from Loyola University of Chicago School of Law in 2021.

While in law school, Grace served as the Director of Student Outreach of the Decalogue Society and as a Student Clinician with the Legislation and Policy Clinic. She was also awarded the CALI Award in Advocacy while completing her J.D.

ADMISSIONS

Grace is admitted to practice in Illinois.
