

JACQUELINE BROWN

Jacqueline Brown concentrates her practice in the areas of insurance law and commercial litigation matters and is committed to providing clients with exemplary service and legal knowledge.

Prior to joining the firm, Jackie served in various legal intern and externships throughout Chicago-based firms. She is also a former summer associate at Foran Glennon in which she gained significant experience working on subrogation matters, property coverage disputes and matters involving general insurance defense on behalf of architects and engineers. She also gained experience in Alternative Dispute Resolution, drafting motions, pleadings and memorandums about a variety of legal questions relating to the federal rules of evidence and complex civil procedure.

PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP

Jackie is a member of the Justinian Society of Lawyers and the Chicago Bar Association.

EDUCATION

Jackie earned her B.A. in Political Science and Mass Communications with a minor in Journalism from the University of Delaware in 2019. After completing her undergraduate degree, she received her J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 2022.

While in law school, Jacqueline served as a member of the ABA Client Counseling Team where she competed in competitions across the country and placed as a semi-finalist in 2022. She also served as a teaching assistant for the Professional Identity Formation course for first-year students at Loyola and was the executive editor of education for the Loyola Journal of Law and Public Policy as well as the associate editor for the Loyola Journal of Regulatory Compliance. Jackie also served as president of the Justinian Society of Lawyers chapter at Loyola.

ADMISSIONS

Jackie is authorized to practice in Illinois.