

S. ALEX WEBB

Alex Webb concentrates his practice in insurance coverage and claims disputes, complex construction defect claims and defense litigation. He provides clients with strategic and efficient support strategies to create valued and cost-effective resolutions.

Prior to joining Foran Glennon, Alex worked as a coverage attorney at a boutique firm based in Los Angeles, where he advocated for clients in complex and large-loss exposure insurance and construction disputes, managing general liability, commercial auto and workers' compensation claims.

PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP

Alex is a member of the State Bar of California.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

As a volunteer mediator for North County Lifeline at the Vista County Small Claims Court, Alex successfully settled cases recommended for mediation to a 100% success rate.

He also volunteered at the San Diego Juvenile Hall, serving as a mediator and mentor to youths held within the detention center.

EDUCATION

Alex earned his J.D. from the California Western School of Law in 2012 after completing his B.A. in Mass Communications at the University of Utah in 2007.

ADMISSIONS

Alex is authorized to practice in California.
