

TREVIS BUSTEED

Trevis Busteed focuses his practice on general litigation. In all matters, he prioritizes establishing trusted relationships with his clients to operate in their best interest.

Prior to joining Foran Glennon, Trevis worked as an associate for a large employment law firm researching and creating pre-litigation demands and preparing follow-up memorandums to facilitate negotiations and establish viable causes of action. He also worked at a boutique law firm earlier in his career where he analyzed personal injury claims.

EDUCATION

Trevis earned his J.D. from Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University in 2020 after receiving his B.A. in Politics and Government from the University of Hartford.

While pursuing his law degree, Trevis served as a legal intern in the Office of Federal Operations at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as well as an investigative intern for the Rhode Island Commission for Human Rights.

From his work with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and his demonstrated commitment to public engagement and pro-bono service, Trevis received the Gold Public Service Award.

ADMISSIONS

Trevis is authorized to practice in New York.

